

The Role of International Financial Institutions, Central Banks and Monetary Policies in the Low-Carbon Transition

July, 9th 2015

Welcome coffee at 8:30am

09:00am Introduction

Jean Pisani-Ferry, Commissioner General for policy planning, France Stratégie

What do we know about climate finance?

Nick Robins, Director, UNEP Inquiry

Financing the low-carbon transition in an adverse context

Jean-Charles Hourcade, CIRED, France

09:30am Lowering the investment risks on low-carbon projects and mobilising savings: the interest of valuing long term assets

Moderator: Nick Robins, UNEP Inquiry

Rapporteur: Jorge Nunez, CEPS, Belgium

Introduction: Dipak Dasgupta, Alternative board member of GCF, India and Marianne Fay, Chief Economist, Climate Change Group, World Bank

Roundtable: Kornelis Blok, Delft University of Technology, Ecofys, Holland; Chris Hope, University of Cambridge; Nick Mabey, E3G, UK; Billy Pizer, Duke University, USA; Dr. Asbjørn Torvanger, CICERO, Center for International Climate and Environmental Research, Oslo and Takako Wakiyama, IGES, Japan

11:00am Valuing carbon assets and the engineering challenges of a reformed financial intermediation

Moderator: Pierre Ducret, CEO, CDC Climat, France

Rapporteur: Étienne Espagne, CEPII, France

Introduction: Mahmoud Allah Malik Kazemi, Deputy Governor, Bangladesh Bank

Roundtable: Carlo Carraro, University of Venice; Dr. Armin Haas, IASS, Germany; Pierre Monnin, CEP, Switzerland; Baptiste Perrissin Fabert, MEDDE, France and Frédéric Samama, Deputy Global Head of Institutional & Sovereign Clients, Amundi

12:20am «New macroeconomic normal» after COP 21

Moderator: Jean-Charles Hourcade, CIRED, France

Roundtable: Jean Pisani-Ferry, Commissioner General for policy planning, France Stratégie; Teresa Ribera, former Spanish Climate Change State Secretary, Director of IDDRI, France and Alfredo Sirkis, Executive Director of the Center Brazil Climate (CBC) think tank and former Chairman of the Joint Climate Change Commission of the Brazilian Congress

Official launching of the France Stratégie/CEPII Financing the low-carbon transition

Explanatory Remarks: Nicolas Lorach, France Stratégie and Étienne Espagne, CEPII

01:00pm Snacks and drinks

PROGRAM